COUNTY OFFICIALS PLEASED WITH SNOW CLEANUP EFFORTS

Dedicated employees did a great job under difficult conditions

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Executive Lee Holloway, Board Chairman Michael Mayo, Sr., and County Supervisor Marina Dimitrijevic released the following joint statement regarding winter storm cleanup efforts in Milwaukee County:

“We would like to publicly thank all of the dedicated men and women who worked on our highways, airports, parks and government facilities yesterday. They did a fantastic job.

“This was one of the worst winter storms Milwaukee County has ever experienced, and these dedicated public servants worked long and hard to make sure that we could get back to business as usual as soon as possible. Sheriff’s deputies, public works crews, our airport operations team, parks workers, mental health nurses, facilities employees and other staff all performed their jobs well under very difficult circumstances.

“As County Executive and County Supervisors, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to all County employees involved in the cleanup effort. We recognize all the things our great County team was able to accomplish.”
